WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

AN ADDRESS TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA.

A VERY SENSIBLE DOCUMENT.

We publish below, says the Richmond Whig, the address of Wyatt Lewis to his colored fellow citizens. It contains many plain truths, and will be read with interest by the colored people, emanating as it does from one of their own number, who is well and favorably known to the entire community:

Fellow Citizens: An attempt has been made to deprive us of your confidence and good will, by ascribing to us improper motives in lately inviting certain white gentlemen of this city—Mr. Macfarland, Mr. Johnson, and others—to address us on the subject of our political relations towards the white people of the South.

We had seen a very industrious effort going on to draw our colored people into a party organization, pledged to oppose the Southern whites, as such, and chain them to the leadership of a set of men, chiefly white, whose attempts to foster antagonism and hatred between the two races we deemed unwise, unnecessary and of dangerous tendency.

It was clear to us that if our colored people were made to array themselves into a party of their own, led by a few white men of violent political feelings and temper, who indulged the habit of severely denouncing that class of whites whom we had always thought at least as respectable as the one to which these men belonged, so far from promoting the interests of the colored race, they would seriously compromise those interests.

If we are citizens and freemen, in truth, surely we ought to be allowed the right of freely judging who are our real friends among the many professed ones bidding for our favor. If colored men surrender their wills and freedom of political action to leaders of any sort, and deliberately put away from themselves the prerogative of free, individual choice between political parties, the shackles which they thus voluntarily assume will be found more degrading to their minds than the slavery which the law once imposed upon them. We cannot conceive of a bondage more disgraceful than that imposed by freedmen upon themselves in surrendering the right to act upon their own judgments and consciences; nor is there any use more base and vile that the colored man can allow himself to be put to than the dirty work of party and faction. What is left of the freedom which we have so lately received from our country as a priceless boon, if we shave already, lost the liberty of exercising so plain a right as that of hearing from respectable men belonging to one party of the whites, explanations of their views on subjects vitally concerning us, after listening hundreds of times, even unto fatigue, to the other party? We should be unworthy of our blessed freedom if we should consent to give up the right of hearing both sides of a discussion involving our highest interests, and if we should surrender our right of individually judging how we should act in an emergency so important as the present.

There could not be a more conclusive proof of the danger into which our new freedom has fallen, than this bold attempt to deprive us of the right to meet in public to hear addresses from whomsoever we please on public questions. And this very attempt to deprive us of so valuable a right shows that those who make it are afraid of free discussion, and ready to wage war upon those very political liberties which they boast of having under their own exclusive keeping.

These men require of us, moreover, a species of conduct positively dishonorable. Many of us are in the employment of gentlemen who, as we have reason to think, are disposed to deal towards us with fairness and honor, in our business relations. But we are expected and required, after receiving employment from respectable gentlemen in the day time, to go at night into political meetings and societies, where the violent abuse of these employers, their class and race, are the principal theme of the speeches. If we are forced into this course of conduct, then the common instincts of honor require that we should quit our employments, leave homes which are pleasant to ourselves and to our families, in order that we may indulge, without the pangs of dishonor and ingratitude, in the new and unnatural hatred, which violent men insist upon kindling in the breasts of the colored people.

The impolicy of this course is as palpable as its impropriety. In Virginia the colored race is in a minority. To band them together, is to force the white race into a counter combination, in which event our race must certainly be out-voted. It is claimed in opposition to this view, that the white laborers and mechanics will unite with us against the well off whites. But you know that there is less affection and sympathy between our race and the laboring whites than with the richer class. We compete with each other in the labor market.

We want many things of the new State government. We want the new constitution to provide for the education of all children, white and colored, out of the public taxes. We want this constitution to level and obliterate all distinctions of color before the law. We cannot secure these most desirable and most vital and priceless objects by forming ourselves into a minority party of colored men, and forcing the white majority to vote us down. Our great aim should be, not to create enemies, but to make sure and safe our rights and liberties.

WYATT LEWIS.

A soldier of the 10th. Georgia regiment was court-martialed for what he called "playing quartermaster," that is, for taking things without paying for them. His punishment, among other things, consisted in marking time for an hour each day on the head of a barrel. While he was thus engaged one day, a comrade passed by and accosted him with, "Joe, what are you marking time there for?" Joe answered as well as the difficulty of keeping his balance would allow, "don't know, 'zackly, believe it's some foolishness about some chickens."

Comrade. "Well, they have no right to make you do that kind of a thing. There's no law for it?"

Joe. "Don't care whether there's any law for it or not, I'se a doin' it!"

Poor Joe! he has many sympathizers.—Law or no law, we'se a doin' it.—Land We Love.

RAIL ROADS.

NOTICE.

OFFICE SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R. CO.,
PORTSMOUTH, VA., March 23d, 1867.

It has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

This Air-Line Freight Route

claims to be the most expeditious and direct route, and avoiding to a great extent Marine Insurance, also the cheapest freight route between the

Northern Cities

and

North and South Carolina.

As Freights consigned by the Company's connecting Steamers is forwarded from Portsmouth within twenty-four hours after being landed, there is no reason for delays, and although freights may sometimes be missent, it will in such cases be promptly traced, and if not found will be paid for. The Companies forming this line cannot be responsible for the rapid transportation of freights or charges upon it, unless sent

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person, controls your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1867.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

In spite of the radicalism of the New York Tribune, we have come, of late, to think better of Mr. Greeley, its Editor, than formerly. He has a heart, and we would fain believe that heart is honest. It is only his head that is subject to wild and hurtful gyrations. He is, therefore, liable to be deceived, as he often is, by his correspondents, and sometimes committed against his own policy by his assistants. We judge so, from the fact that what Mr. Greeley says is, generally, humane, kind, forgiving and true, according as he understands a case, while his paper often betrays quite a different temper.

A Mr. Conway, who has been recently figuring in the South, making speeches, we observe betrays the Tribune into some mistakes in regard to the meeting held here.—He, also, exhibits less Yankee sharpness in judging of public opinion in the South than we expected. It was our purpose not to notice his visit, for the reason that the company he kept, while here, led us to expect no fairness from him, and other reasons rather served to impress us with the idea that he was "small potatoes." His speech, as published in the Standard, confirms this idea, and presents him in the attitude of having found his political level, when he affiliated with demagogues and tricksters of the Holden-ite order.

Both the speech here, and the account which he gives of the Conservative meeting, indicate under what influences Mr. Conway penned both. The mis-statements, however, hurt but little. The following from Conway's letter to the Tribune is very refreshing:

"After the Governor concluded his speech, the audience called loudly for Radical speakers. Mr. Harris, a colored man, responded, and made a speech in which he tried hard to be radical to the Radicals, and yet conservative to the Conservatives, so called. The audience appeared greatly annoyed because they did not hear thoroughly radical sentiments, and soon called on Mr. Taylor, of Raleigh. This gentleman spoke for awhile, and, without saying anything, finally concluded by asking the audience whether they were Republicans, and as many were so to show their hands. All—men, women, and children, including the white men—present, raised their hands. A friend of the Governor who witnessed this winding up of the meeting said: 'This is a Radical crowd, and there is no use in the Governor or any one else trying to make them otherwise.'"

THE "UNION REGISTER."

The Editors of this Journal, which, our readers need not to be informed, is Radical "after the straitest sect," though conducted with more fairness and moderation than usually characterize papers of a similar persuasion, have not been in North Carolina sufficiently long to be thoroughly posted as to the antecedents of our old party hacks.—They are making good progress, however. It will be seen, by the following extracts from the last number, that they have got their eyes well open as to the pretensions of the "so called" Southern Loyalists:

QUALIFICATIONS.—In 1861, Mr. Holden "spurned the pelf of old Abe Lincoln," and assailed, in his usual amiable manner, other journals of the State for accepting it. In 1867, he log-rolls for the public printing, with the plea that his sufferings in the cause of the Union give him a prior claim. On the same principle Satan might claim a "leetle" higher place, than Gabriel. He has evidently suffered more on account of sin, though it happens to be his own iniquity that makes him smart. So Mr. Holden suffered from the rebellion, which his own corrupt principles, zealously advocated for years, aided so materially to produce."

WONDERFUL IF TRUE.—The Hillsboro Recorder gives an account of a meeting held at the Court-house in that place, at which Mr. Wm. McCauley introduced a resolution which contains a most telling arraignment of Mr. Holden. If the statements are true we can but acknowledge that "truth is stranger than fiction." Of course, being "strangers" and "adventurers," unworthy of a seat or a hearing in that carefully selected convention of the 27th, we know nothing of the facts, but so far as we can find any documentary evidence upon the subject, we are driven to admit almost every statement it contains."

ALL ALIKE.—The Conservatives of Tennessee are bringing before the people of that State certain reminiscences which must be embarrassing even to such an unmitigated apostate and blackguard as the Radical candidate for Governor. Brownlow's conduct as Governor has been based upon the assumption that no man connected with the Confederate cause has any rights, either of life, liberty, or property; and yet there was a time when he spoke thus:

"Dissolve the Union, you infamous villains, and we shall make this proposition at once to Louis Napoleon, a most sagacious monarch, and he would quarter at New Orleans 300,000 Frenchmen, and in the Chesapeake 300,000 more; we would then command the Mississippi Valley, whip the Northwestern States into OUR SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY, and we would then turn upon the New England States and cause the hurricane of civil war to rage and sweep from Mason & Dixon's line to the cod fisheries of Maine, until we would extinguish the last Abolition foothold on the continent of America."

There is a strong resemblance between Brownlow's record and that of our North Carolina "Southern Loyalists."

SENATOR WILSON.—We learn that this gentleman spoke in Goldsboro', yesterday afternoon. He addresses the people in Newbern, this afternoon. We understand that Mr. Wilson will reach this City on Monday evening, and will probably make his speech some time on Tuesday.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Governor of North Carolina desires, in this public manner, to return his cordial and most grateful acknowledgments to James E. Myers, Esq., of the firm of Hall, Myers & Thomas, Baltimore, acting for the State of Maryland, and to Messrs. DeRosset & Co., Northrop & Cumming, Atkinson & Shepperson, Mallett & Hoffman, O. G. Parsley & Co., and Messrs. Worth & Daniel, Commission and Fowarding Merchants, at Wilmington, for their prompt and liberal attention in forwarding, delivering and receiving at their respective warehouses, in Wilmington, free of storage and insurance, the supplies, so generously donated by the State of Maryland and benevolent associations in that and other States, for the destitute and suffering people of this State.

The Governor would be pleased if the press of the State would insert this public recognition of liberal and charitable conduct, on the part of these public spirited gentlemen.

GIFT ENTERPRISES—JEWELRY ASSOCIATION.—Especially since the close of the war, the Southern people have been continuously humbugged by the repeated efforts of "Gift Enterprise" men to cheat and defraud them. Hundreds have unwittingly sustained these villains by being misled by their tempting advertisements and letters. The press of the South should guard the people against these imposters.

Recently one of these shaving machines ascertained the name of a gentleman of this City, and sent him five tickets, gratis. The gentleman immediately enclosed them to a friend in New York, with the request that the cheat should be investigated and exposed. The following is the reply of his New York friend:

NEW YORK, April 22, 1867.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 18th. inst. is now before me, and in reply I would respectfully say:

On receipt of the certificates I sent a sharp fellow down to the office of these scamps, and he found the room in the top of a five or six story building, merely boarded up in a very rude manner and no one there to represent the parties, no furniture, &c.—On the floor beneath, was a man who showed evidences of uneasiness and great curiosity as to who this gentleman was, his business, &c. He said he furnished this firm with the jewelry, &c., and said he sold them for about $4 (a lie,) but it is unnecessary to go more into detail, but, just as I knew, before sending, the whole thing is one of those "swindles" now so numerous in New York, whereby men of more brains than honesty succeed in fleecing unwary countrymen and gaining a livelihood.

After learning the above, I called on Capt. Kelly, of the 41st. Precinct Police, and showed him your letter and the certificates, and requested him to cause the rascals to be arrested and their business broken up.—But the Captain showed me three others of the same character, and he says it is impossible to do so, in consequence of the difficulty of proving the facts on them.

I must add to you, as I have written to many of my Southern friends, that all such trash advertisements and dodges are weindles of the most unblushing character, and that when any man or company say they will furnish any article of merchandize so much under the rates of any first class establishment, common sense dictates there must be fraud somewhere.

Advise all your friends, in all such cases, to simply throw such correspondence in the waste basket, and let the rogues starve to death here or go to work honestly. C.

A RELIC OF THE PAST.—A friend has laid upon our table a literary curiosity, for which we make our acknowledgments. It is a copy of the "Ulster (N. Y.) County Gazette," of January 4, 1800. In size, it is not much larger than an ordinary sheet of foolscap paper, but the typography is neat and preserves its appearance astonishingly well.

The number before us is in mourning for the death of Washington, and contains a full account of the obsequies of the great Patriot.

Under the head of "Proceedings in Congress," we observe an address of congratulation voted by that body to President Adams for having suppressed, by force of arms, "a wicked rebellion, for a second time, in Pennsylvania."

In the advertising columns, we notice the following:

FOR SALE,

The one half of a Saw Mill, with a convenient place for building, lying in the town of Rochester. By the Mill is an inexhaustible quantity of Pine Wood. And, also, a STOUT, HEALTHY, ACTIVE,

NEGRO WENCH,

Any person inclined to purchase may know the particulars by applying to JOHN SCOONMAKER, Jun., at Rochester.
November 23, 1799.

We commend this to Mr. Greeley.

CONTUMACIOUS.—The Standard, alluding to the fact that "Gov. Worth has been requested by Gen. Sickles to recommend persons as Registers, to enroll the voters in this State," protests against "any agency whatever by Gov. Worth in the work of reconstruction." This is the first instance that we have seen, in any quarter, of a disposition to arraign or question the authority or action of the District Commander, and comes with a bad grace from a man, who is disfranchised. Gen. Sickles, probably, knows what he is about, and Gov. Worth will do nothing but what he is fully authorized or invited to do.

These "Southern Loyalists" and former secessionists not only arrogate to themselves the exclusive right to monopolize the civic part of the work of re-organization, but they would even assume to dictate to the military Commanders! They will get a sharp rebuke before long, if they don't "rein in" a little.

NORTH CAROLINA PRESS.—In our notice of the North Carolina Press, the other day, we inadvertently omitted the Weekly Message at Greensboro', a most excellent religious paper, edited by that godly lady, Mrs. Bumpass, and also that capital tri-weekly, the Lincoln Courier, edited by Mr. Britton, and the Carolina Watchman, at Salisbury. We beg pardon for the omission. It was purely unintentional. We have, therefore, four religious papers in the State, and forty-nine secular.

Secretary Seward has kept a diary for six years. Butler's also threatens to become chronic.

STATE ITEMS.

——On Easter Monday, a large number of the Freedmen of Henderson assembled at the Fair ground, and, at the request of a committee appointed to wait upon them, Messrs. I. J. Young and G. Badger Harris addressed the meeting. Matthew Watson, colored, introduced the speakers, and at the close of the speeches, on behalf of the large assembly, expressed his warmest thanks at the plain, practical and hopeful views of the political situation taken and expressed by Messrs. Young and Harris, and added a few earnest and sensible remarks.

—— The Tarboro Southerner gives a very hopeful account of matters in Edgecombe. In 1860, this county produced 20,000 bales of cotton. According to present calculation, thinks the Southerner, she will raise, in 1867, 25,000 bales. This alone, says the same paper, "will realize an immense sum, and will go far towards relieving the County from the pecuniary embarrassments under which she is now laboring." This is gratifying, but the Southerner must remember that the reduced price of cotton will not enable planters to realize, even with the increased crop, as much as they obtained last year.—We have the authority of an experienced planter for the opinion that, under the existing system of labor, cotton cannot be raised, with the tax included, for less than fifteen cents per pound.

—— Sidney Smith, Esq., of Orange, died suddenly at his residence, near Chapel Hill, on Thursday morning. Mr. Smith, some years ago, was quite a prominent politician, and represented his County in the State Legislature. He was a man of fine intelligence.

—— There will be a great "Pic Nic" in Henderson, on the 1st of May, to which everybody is invited. We expect that Raleigh will be represented.

—— There was a jail delivery in Wilmington, on Wednesday. James and Lawrence Mason, whites, confined for robbery, and James Fisher, colored, confined for larceny, made their escape by removing a plank, and, with this plank, prizing open the iron bars of the window of their cell.

—— Daniel B. Baker, Esq., of Wilmington, has been appointed Register in Bankruptcy for the New Hanover Congressional District.

——Bishop Atkinson preached in Tarboro, on Sunday last, and administered the rite of confirmation to ten persons.

——Franklin Lodge, No. 109, A. F. M., at Beaufort, will be dedicated, on Thursday next, by Right Worshipful D. G. M. Best, of Raleigh.

——The Henderson Index says: "Never since the "late so-called" went up, has money been as scarce as now in this region. Even a counterfeit, ragged 25 cent green back would refresh our gaze; but times will improve soon. Our Tobacco crop will go into market about the first of May and June, the wheat crop in this section is unprecedentedly fine, and if no accident happens to it, the yield will be better than for years. Under these circumstances, we can grin and bear it a while longer."

METHODIST BISHOPS.—At the recent meeting of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Nashville, after a full examination of the votes cast by the several Annual Conferences upon the changes proposed by the General Conference, it was ascertained that the change in the name of the Church had been defeated by the vote of 1,168 yeas, and nays 409. There not being three-fourths in favor, it was defeated. On the change to admit Lay Representatives, the vote being 1,199 yeas and 371 nays, it was decided adopted, there being the constitutional majority.

At the same meeting Bishop Doggett was assigned to attend and preside at the next session of the West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Baltimore Conferences. The North Carolina Conference is to meet at Wilmington, Nov. 27, 1867.

For the Sentinel.

MARRIAGE REGISTERS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In your paper of the 26th., I notice an article, under the caption of "The Marriage License Law."

For the information of all interested in this matter, permit me to call attention to the fact that our excellent Secretary of State, R. W. Best, is preparing the Registers required by the late act, with printed headings, properly ruled and substantially bound. Mr. Best was for a long time Clerk of the County Court of Greene, and is, by long experience, peculiarly fitted for getting up Registers, Dockets, Tax books, &c.

Clerks will do well to correspond with Mr. B., before ordering books.

N.

COLORED CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE.—Fred. Douglass (colored man) was beaten in the Radical convention, in Monroe, on Tuesday, for delegate to the Constitutional Convention, by Hon. Freeman Clarke. The vote stood, Clarke 86, Douglass 44. So Douglass has the go-by.

There is nothing very extraordinary in this, however. The "go-by" is about all the poor colored man usually gets from the party of great moral ideas, even when opportunity occasionally offers, as in this instance, to give him something better. The negro, one of these days, will discover that the Radicals have been, as they are now, seeking to use him simply to promote certain selfish schemes of their own. They look upon the colored man as a political chattel—that is, their chattel—and treat him accordingly.—N. Y. Express.

The truth is that the moment universal suffrage shall be an accomplished fact, radicalism will not have left a single issue upon which it can ask the support of all the states in the Union. It never was national. It is not even national to day; for, although driven by the force of circumstances to decree negro suffrage for the South, it denies suffrage to negroes in a majority of the States under its direct control in the North. Always sectional, it always will be so; and the moment negro suffrage shall be accomplished, it will collapse like a torn balloon.—Chicago Times.

Queen Victoria denounces the attempt of old women to renovate their looks. Another proof that she is not setting her crown for anybody.

The extension of our limits to the Western extremity of the continent gives the United States four hours and thirty-nine minutes more sunlight than it had before.

OUR POVERTY.—ONE OF ITS CAUSES.—If any arguments are wanting against the practice of planting cotton in Maury County, (says the Columbia Gazette, and the argument is applicable throughout the South,) to be itself sufficient. During the last season the farmers of this County made first rate average crops of cotton, and it has sold as high as there is any reason to hope it will sell again. The aggregate yield may be estimated at ten thousand bales for the County. Tids, at 25 cents, has sold for $1,250,000—all of which ought to have come and the great bulk of which has come into the country.

The question is, where is it now? And many people are puzzled for an answer.—But it will be explained very quickly and clearly to any one who will take his stand at the depot as the freight cars are emptied, and see what character of freight they daily deliver. There may be seen arrivals every day of every article of farm produce used by man and beast, brought from Louisville or Cincinnati. And just at this season whole car loads of plows and other farming implements may be seen, all bearing the brand of some Louisville or Cincinnati house.

Add to these the regular supplies of dry goods, hardware, drugs and notions, that under present circumstances cannot be produced here, and the question, where does the cotton money go, is very nearly answered. Reader, if you own a farm, do try and raise your own potatoes, peas and bacon; above all, raise your corn. It is not yet too late to arrange for your corn crop.—Then take time by the forelock, and do not, we beseech you, continue to labor and slave for a foreign taskmaster.—Ga. Constitutionalist.

THE CASE OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.—It is generally understood that Mr. Jefferson Davis will not be tried at the next term of the United States Circuit Court, which is to be held in Richmond next month, since Chief Justice Chase declines to hold a court there so long as martial law exists in Virginia, and as this is in his circuit the court cannot be held without his presence. Mr. Davis' counsel, it is reported, will appear at the commencement of the term and move to quash the indictment against their client on the ground of certain imformalities in it. Should the motion prevail, the prosecution will have to find a new indictment before April, 1868; for, according to the act of 1790, under which Mr. Davis is arraigned, "No person or persons shall be prosecuted, tried, or punished for treason or other capital offence aforesaid, willful murder or perjury excepted, unless the indictment for the same shall be found by a grand jury within three years next after the treason or capital offence aforesaid shall be done or committed." As the war ended in April, 1865, the time for holding Jefferson Davis under charge of treason has nearly expired. It would be a strange finale to the drama of secession and civil war, if the leader of the opposition to the government should escape a long threatened trial for impeachment by the remissness of his prosecutors; yet not more strange than the repeated postponement of his trial has been.—N. Y. World.

The Southern white man is the natural, as he is the best and truest friend of the negro. The two races may live together in peace and harmony, feeling their mutual dependence, and blessing one another: if bad feeling is not stirred up by our demagogues, in conjunction with the pious missionaries, who are roaming over the country, taking from the negroes their little money and giving them in exchange—their photograms. At any rate, it is the duty of those, who have the superior education and mental culture, to set an example of fair dealing, moderation, forbearance, and kindness. The disfranchised class have no political aspirations, and no lamentations over their situation. There is not one of them, who is not willing to have as a ruler, an original Union man of principle and integrity, such as Moore, of North Carolina, Perry, of South Carolina, Jenkins, of Georgia, and Sharkey, of Mississippi. But we fear that we may get an old fire-eater newly dressed up in the star-spangled banner, with an eagle feather in his hat, who says Yankee-doodle as a grace before meat, and Hail Columbia as a thanksgiving after it. Better a military ruler for a century, than a single term of such a man! The military ruler has no partizans to reward, and no enmities to gratify. The fair presumption is that he will be just and impartial, having no controlling motive but a sense of duty. There is not one of the five Districts in so unhappy a condition to-day, as is Tennessee in the Union.

It becomes then the imperative duty of voters to choose true men, not turn coats and weather-cocks, men whose consistent unionism will be satisfactory to the dominant party. Such men as Governors, Representatives and legislators, will not be intent upon personal aggrandizement and building up a party, but will strive earnestly to promote the happiness and prosperity of their sorely disturbed, perplexed, and impoverished country.—The Land We Love.

THE RICHMOND POW-WOW.—T. W. Conway, who got up the Republican negro Convention at Richmond, wrote the address, resolutions, and adopted them, has commenced travelling over Virginia offering his programme for acceptance wherever he can find an audience. The narrow purpose of this Bureau stipendiary to harness the negro to a party organization which seeks his confidence merely to use it for a selfish end, is too apparent in the threatening and criminating animus of the proceedings to receive approbation from honest and intelligent citizens, or to succeed in seducing any considerable number of tolerably well informed Africans into the service of such mischief makers as Conway and those he represents. His aim is to excite antipathy and jealousy between the blacks and whites at the South, and to create a sentiment which would inevitably lead to most deplorable contention and results. The condition of the South is such as to require, for the good of the whole country, forbearance, candor, encouragement. The zealots who excite strife that they may reap personal and party advantage, are moral and political traitors, and should receive punishment due hypocrites and promoters of dissension.—Boston Post.

THE CHICAGO ELECTION.—Two years ago Mayor Rice was elected by a majority of 5,629. In November last the Republican majority in the city was 6,867. Mayor Rice was re-elected yesterday by the reduced majority of 3,938. This is a very handsome Democratic gain, certainly.

But even a better result than this is the gain of four Aldermen by the Democracy, viz: Comisky in the eight ward, Casselman in the twelth, Schins in the fourteenth, and Mansur in the sixteenth.

Altogether, the Democracy of Chicago have reason to be proud of their work in this contest. Next time, they will do better still, and they may look forward to complete triumph in the great trial of November, 1868.—Chicago Times.

A Wisconsin paper, the Baraboo Observer, has observed a bearded woman, whose name is Holmes, whose head is as bald as a billiard ball, and whose chin is fringed with a beard three inches long.

MARRIED,

THE NEWS AND FARMER,
PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT
ASHEVILLE, N. C.
By R. M. STOKES.
HAVING PURCHASED THE OFFICE OF THE Asheville News, I have determined to enlarge it and devote its columns more especially to the interests of Agriculture, Horticulture, Mining, and all the other industrial pursuits of the State of North Carolina. For this purpose I have secured the assistance of many of the best practical scientific writers in nearly all parts of the State, who have agreed to contribute regularly to its columns valuable information on all the above subjects.
It will be the pride of the Proprietor to make the "News and Farmer" one of the handsomest as well as most valuable agricultural and family journals in the State.
The News and Farmer is published in one of the richest Agricultural and mining sections of the State, and enjoys almost the exclusive patronage of ten counties. This fact gives it great advantages to advertisers. Its subscription is now increasing daily from all parts of the State.
TERMS:
1 Copy 1 year, $3; 2 Copies $5.50; 5 Copies, $12.50; 10 copies $20, invariably in advance.

FAYETTEVILLE STREET,
RALEIGH, N. C.
Grateful for the flattering patronage with which we have heretofore been so kindly favored, we respectfully solicit an increased share of the patronage of the citizens of Raleigh and the surrounding country. Without specially quoting, we deem it sufficient to say, that our stock mostly embraces such articles as are usually found in Family Groceries. Most of our goods have been recently bought in New York and Baltimore, for cash, and we hope to be able to sell them on satisfactory terms. In addition to our stock of Groceries, &c., we have a fine lot of
HATS AND READY MADE CLOTHING and a splendid lot of Confectioneries, consisting of PLAIN AND FANCY CANDIES, RAISINS, ORANGES, FIGS, NUTS AND BRANDY PEACHES, &c., all of which will be sold on reasonable terms.
We have also a fine lot of genuine Durham Smoking Tobacco, which we can implicitly recommend to "those who smoke." Please call and see us.
We will pay particular attention to all consignments of Produce and Merchandise entrusted to our care and will endeavor to sell at the best market prices. Consignments are respectfully solicited. By a prompt and close attention to business and fair dealing with all, we hope to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

THE SENTINEL.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

To Advertisers.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

New Advertisements.—Jenkins & Perry make several attractive announcements. Read our friend Perry on his Smoking tobacco, particularly.

Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, again call attention to their enterprising efforts to serve the public.

Mayor's Court.—J. Seton and W. J. Jones, colored, charged with a misdemeanor and fined $5 each.

William Scott, colored, for beating his wife Cynthia Scott, bound in a bond of $100 to appear at the next County Court for Wake, and be of good behavior and keep the peace in the mean time.

The Memorial Cemetery.—There are now buried in the Memorial Cemetery, 312 North Carolinians, 46 South Carolinians, 44 Georgians, 8 Alabamians, 8 Mississippians, 4 Virginians, 2 Floridians, 2 Tennesseans, 1 Texan, 1 Louisianian, 1 Arkansian, 3 Confederate States Navy men, and 106 unknown dead. Total 538.

There are three or four others buried at different points in the County. Will not some person in their neighborhoods bring them in?

We are requested to offer a suggestion: The Cemetery is nearly completed; what is needed most, now, to enhance its appearance, is turfing. The Society is not able to bear the expense of doing it. It is too late in the season to sow grass seed. Will not each lady, who feels an interest in the work, spend part of one day in turfing two graves?

House Rents.—The following sensible and timely observations from the Petersburg Index are as applicable to this community as that to which they are addressed:

"We have heard complaints made that, while the rent demanded for the better class of houses has been very materially reduced, no such reduction has been made from the rates charged for dwellings of more humble pretensions; and we are sorry to say that these complaints are well founded. Persons of moderate or small resources are compelled to pay for house accommodations far more in proportion than their more fortunate neighbor. Houses, worth in the market from five to fifteen thousand dollars, are let at prices ranging from five to twelve hundred dollars, while those which could not be sold for more than one-fifth of those amounts cannot be had for less than an hundred and fifty to four hundred dollars. In fact, in some instances, the rental demanded is equal to one-fourth or one-fifth of the value of the property. It is not our purpose to specify the particular prices of property to which we refer, because we do not intend to make any personal allusions, and desire what we say to have a general bearing.

This should not be the case. The poor man and the man of limited means are entitled to as much consideration as the man who has a large share of this world's goods, and if there is to be difference, it should be in their favor. Many of them are compelled to pay from a fourth to a third of their income for shelter for their families, and the accommodations obtained even at this extravagant outlay are of the very poorest description. This is a matter which ought to appeal in the strongest manner to the consideration of the landlord, and we think that there are very few of this class in our community who will not lend a favorable ear to these very reasonable complaints when they are brought immediately to their notice.

We are all suffering from the stringency of the times and the depressed condition of business, and none more so than the clerks, the mechanics and the laboring men. These especially are very much straitened, and find great difficulty in their efforts to support their families, and it is not asking too much for them to suggest that the rents demanded for the class of houses which they occupy should be reduced in like proportion with those of a better character."

The Hollywood Bazaar.—The Richmond papers announce the following contributions to the North Carolina table on the second day of the Bazaar:

"Fresh flowers from the gallant General Hoke, of N. C., the hero of Plymouth.

Mrs. Jefferson Wallace and family contribute to this table a box of beautiful fancy articles of every description.

To Dayton, Allen & Co., of Richmond, the ladies of this table are indebted for five valuable brass bound buckets.

One pair of emu mats, brought from Australia, and presented by Mrs. Wm. Cameron, of Petersburg, and the skin of the emu, tanned, for sale.

A photographic picture of Mosby, and also one of Mosby and his men, presented by Mr. Davis.

Thomas H. Wynne has presented a handsome statuette, representing the drawing of rations by a Confederate lady from a Federal officer—to be raffled for as soon as the chances are taken."

General News.

The daughter of Mr. Edward White, on Harding street, whose remarkable illness was mentioned in the Express two or three days since, spoke and received nourishment yesterday for the first time in the last twenty-one days. We learn from the esteemed minister, who has been in constant attendance upon her, that she expressed herself as having been perfectly sensible of all that passed around her during her illness. She mentioned several scenes and events that occurred at her bedside, which, at the time, were of painful interest to her, though she was unable in any way to express, or even intimate, her cognizance of them. This is one of the most remarkable cases that has ever occurred in this community.—Petersburg Express, 26th.

Governor Orr said in his recent speech before the Charleston Board of Trade: "When the emissary comes here from the State of New York, Massachusetts, or Ohio, and says to the black man, 'we are your friends; we are going to take care of you: vote with us; these white people cannot be trusted;' I want our colored men to say to these emissaries, to the Massachusetts men, that in South Carolina, under this law, it matters not by whom it was passed, every colored man, twenty-one years of age, is entitled to his ballot, and that he would not be allowed to vote in Massachusetts, unless he could read and write. Say to the emissary of Ohio, who comes here for the purpose of giving advice as to how you shall vote, go back to Ohio, and enlighten the heathen there, before you come here, because no black man there is entitled to vote. Within the last three weeks, New Jersey, Ohio and Michigan have resolved that the black man shall not vote under any circumstances whatever."

Verily, "loyalty" is it own reward. A certain Jaquess, or Jackass, was one of the late President Lincoln's "Peace Commissioners," and went to Richmond, where he did most vilely bore Jefferson Davis. Returning, he printed several score of lies, and then committed a brutal assault upon a white woman in Keatucky; for this "loyal" eccentricity he was sent to prison. And now comes J. R. Gilmore, otherwise "Edmund Kirke," the accomplice of Jaquess in the peace mission, and, it possible, a more persistent liar: he, "loyal" man, is on trial in Boston on a charge of bastardy. Lovely in their lives, in their striped suits and cropped hair they will not be divided.

Colonel C. C. Sibley, commanding the military sub district of Georgia, on the 19th inst. issued an order dividing the State into eight military posts, as follows: Savannah, comprising twenty-seven counties; Augusta, ten counties; Atlanta, fifteen counties; Dahlonega, sixteen; Rome, twelve; Athens, fourteen; Columbus, sixteen, and Macon, twenty-two counties.

The hygienic system of the Oneida Communists is thus explained by one of their number: "When a brother or sister is unwell, we take him or her to task at a meeting of the community and catechise them so severely that they get into a sweat, which always has the effect of curing them."

The mind of the Princess Charlotte is said to be hopelessly darkened. Her physical health is good, but the animated expression of that unfortunate lady's face has gradually vanished, until there is but the blank stare of vacancy in place of that smile which so charmed the Mexican people.

In Professor Phelps' book, entitled "The Still Hour," occurs the following sentence: "The stillness of the hour is the stillnes of a dead calm at sea." Imagine the reverend author's horror when he found, after several hundred copies had been printed, that "calm" was made by the types to read "clam."

Rev. Dr. Deems, of North Carolina, lectured Monday evening in the Seventeenth street Methodist church, New York. Subject—"A Plea for Money Makers." The attendance was fair and the lecture well received.

Some of the Southwest Virginia Redstrings are advocating annexation to West Virginia to escape negro votes. It would be a good idea to annex the whole State to West Virginia. We would thus get into the Union, and according to some of the legal doctors, get rid of the State debt at the same time.—Rich. Enquirer.

Some deaf and dumb children in Jacksonville, Illionis, were asked the meaning of eternity. One wrote on his slate, "It is the lifetime of the Almighty," and another only made a circle. These are beautiful thoughts. God's lifetime is eternity, because it is without beginning or end.

A western man, speaking of the Pacific Railroad, says it is one of the "funniest coincidences in the world, that almost every alternate section of land, on either side of the road, belongs to some member of Congress."

Spring bonnets are smaller than those of last year. They are, however, much trimmed with flowers, ribbons, beads, &c. Narrow ribbons are used for strings. The flowers used for trimmings should invariably correspond with those on the ribbons used.

A man in Boston having "experienced" the sort of "religion" most in vogue there, smashed his marble copy of the Venus de Medicis, burnt his pictures and his large, but secular library, like a fine old Puritan gentleman, one of the real old kind.

J. N., through the columns of the Valley Virginian, indignantly denies that he has any idea of "going the rounds" with the "Old Cuss, Money Cutt," (Hunnicutt.)

"I have no people but the Southern people: I have no State but Virginia!" These were the words of Claiborne Scott, an African freedman, in a public meeting at Salem, Va., on Saturday last.

The Boston Herald says: Perhaps one of the richest men in this section of the State has become hopelessly insane in his love of wealth, and whose chief amusement in his seclusion from the world is to count over imaginary money bags.

Mr. Wilson's statement that after the passage of the Shellabarger bill, the reports of murders of freedmen ceased, proves nothing except that the object of the previous lying being gained, the falsehoods were abandoned. The improvement was in the Radical reporters, not the Southern people.—Richmond Examiner.

Spurgeon had a congregation of twelve thousand at Islington, one Sunday, when only twelve persons were present at two other churches in the same place.

The vote in Baltimore on the question of running the street cars on Sunday, as officially declared, is—10,955 in favor, and 9,153 against it.

Mr. Buchanan, whose fortune is reckoned at $200,000, is the richest of our surviving ex-Presidents.

Mr. Judah P. Benjamin has been complimented from the bench in London for his learning in the law.

The Faber family have been making lead-pencils since 1570, and have made many fortunes out of it. Quisque Faber suæ fortunæ.

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

THE GEORGIA AND MISSISSIPPI INJUNCTION CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT.

WASHINGTON, April 26.

The Supreme Court bench was full, to-day.—Many distinguished lawyers were present.

Attorney General Stanbery opened the argument, promising that he would treat the question in its legal aspect. The political question dividing the country is not to be discussed here, but, for a clear understanding of the subject, it is necessary to ascertain what the acts of Congress are, of which the States complain as working excessive injury and depriving them of constitutional rights. He explained the reconstruction laws, remarking that the States lately in rebellion have no republican governments, and that Congress had made provision to form such governments, capable of Congressional representation. Narrating the restraints demanded by the complaints, stopping Grant, Stanton and other high officers, he maintained that this was no case provided for by the Constitution to come before this Court. The controversy was not with these men, as citizens, but as high officials, and not within the jurisdiction of this Court, either with the reason or spirit of the Constitution.

He dwelt upon the damaging consequences of a veto by a judicial tribunal, selected for life and beyond the people's control. The injuries set forth in the complaint were only contingent and might never happen.

In conclusion, he argued that it was a political case, curable only by political remedies.

Mr. O'Connor followed, saying that the idea of the complaint was to show that what was ordered done by Congress was, in length and breadth, unconstitutional and void; therefore, the Court ought to order an injunction in general terms.

The Georgia of 1776 was to be wiped out and a new Georgia substituted. Georgia occupied the position of a body politic and corporate, and a Court of Equity could prevent or restrain any attempt to divert the purposes of its corporation or violation of its charter. He took issue with Mr. Stanbery's assertion, that the mischiefs complained of were contingent and might never happen. The parties named in the complaint had already taken steps in forcing the laws complained of as unconstitutional.

Further hearing was postponed to next Friday, when Mr. Walker will plead in behalf of Mississippi, and Mr. Stanbery will close.

Emigration to Brazil.—A New Orleans paper says: "The steamship Marmion, Capt. Wm. C Berry, sailed yesterday at ten o'clock with three hundred emigrants for Ballard S. Dunn's new settlement in Brazil. The majority of her passengers were farmers, with their families, from Texas, Alabama, Arkansas and Mississippi. There were also several from Louisiana. We noticed on board one family of eight children and their parents, bound to the promised land. All appeared in fine spirits and anxious to reach their new homes."

Madame E. F. Thornton, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. FERTILIZERS

FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.30
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	52.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 2-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	18.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter also fed 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is oluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1867.

SUNDAY READING.

THE HEAVENLY SECRET.

Does the dark and soundless river
Stretch so wide—
The homeward rolling tide
Over which have crossed
Our loved and early lost,
That their unsealed eyes may never see
The further side,
Where still amid this toil and misery
We bide?

Is the realm of their transition
Close at hand,
To this, our living land?
Nearer than we dream?
Can they catch the gleam
Of our smiles, and hear the words we speak?
And see our needs?
And, looking deeper than our eyes may seek,
Our deeds?

Do they mingle in our gladness?
Do they grieve
When ways of good we leave?
Do they know each thought and hope,
While we in shadows grope?
Can they hear the Future's high behest,
Yet lack the power
To lead us from our ill, or to arrest
The hour?

When they find us bowed in sorrow,
Do they sigh?
Or when the earth passes by
For them, do they forget
The cares that here beset
Their well beloved? Or do they wait
(Oh, be it thus!)
And watch beside the golden gate
For us?

We are yearning for their secret;
Though we call,
No answers ever fall
Upon our dulled ears,
To quell our nameless fears,
Yet God is over all, whate'r may be,
And trusting so,
Patience, my heart! a little while, and we Shall know.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

The Scriptures have been translated into 148 languages and dialects, of which 121 had, prior to the formation of the British Foreign Bible Society, never appeared.—And twenty-five of those languages existed without an alphabet, in an oral form. Upwards of 43,000,000 of these copies of God's word are circulated among not less than 600,000,000 of people.

The first division of the Divine orders into chapters and verses is attributed to Stephen Langton, Arch-Bishop of Canterbury, in the reign of King John, in the latter part of the twelfth century or beginning of the thirteenth. Cardinal Hugo, in the middle of the thirteenth century, divided the old Testament into chapters as they stand in our translation. In 1661, Athias, a Jew of Amsterdam, divided the section of Hugo into verses—a French printer had previously (1561) divided the New Testament into verses as they now are.

The Old Testament contains 39 books, 929 chapters, 23,214 verses, 592,439 words, 2,788,100 letters.

The New Testament contains 27 books, 260 chapters, 7,950 verses, 182,253 words, 933,380 letters.

The preceding facts were ascertained by a gentleman in 1718. Also by an Englishman residing at Amsterdam, 1772, and is said to have taken each gentleman nearly three years in the investigation.

There is a Bible in the library of the University of Gottingen written on 2,476 palm leaves.

A day's journey was 34 and 1-5 miles.

A Sabbath day's journey was about an English mile.

Ezekiel's reed was eleven feet nearly.

A cubit is twenty-two inches nearly.

A hand's breadth is equal to three and five-eighth inches.

A finger's breadth is equal to one inch.

A shekel of silver was about fifty cents.

A shekel of gold was $8.09.

A talent of silver was $516.32.

A talent of gold was $13,809.

A piece of silver or a penny was thirteen cents.

A farthing was three cents.

A gorah was one cents.

A mite was one and a half cent.

A homer contains seventy-five gallons and five pints.

The divisions of the Old Testament are four:

1. The Pentateuch, or four books of Moses.
2. The historical books, comprising Joshua to Esther inclusive.
3. Poetical or doctrinal books, from Job to Songs of Solomon, inclusive.
4. Prophetical books, from Isaiah to Malachi.

The New Testament is usually divided into three parts:

1. Historical, containing the four gospels and Acts.
2. Doctrinal, comprising all the epistles from Romans to Jude.
3. Prophetical, being the book of Revelations of St. John.

The commemorative ordinances of the Jews were:

Circumcision, the seal of the covenant with Abraham.

The Passover, to commemorate the protection of the Israelites, when all the first-born of the Egyptians were destroyed.

The feast of Tabernacles, instituted to perpetuate the sojourning of the Israelites for forty years in the wilderness.

The feast of the Pentecost, which was appointed fifty years after the Passover, to commemorate the delivery of the law from Mount Sinai.

Feast of Purim, kept in memory of the Jews from the wicked machinations of Haman.

In 1273, it would have cost a laboring man thirteen years of labor to purchase a Bible; as his pay would only be 1½ pence per day, while the price of a Bible was $199.

THE OTHER SIDE.—Once in a happy home, a sweet, bright baby died. On the evening of the day, when the children gathered round their mother, all sitting very sorrowful, Alice, the eldest, said:

"Mother, you took all the care of baby while she was here, and you carried and held her in your arms all the while she was ill; now, mother, who took her on the other side?"

"On the other side of what, Alice?"

"On the other side of death; who took the baby on the other side, mother; she was so little she could not go alone?"

"Jesus met her there," answered the mother. "It is He who took little children into his arms to bless them, and said,—'Suffer them to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven!"

A LITTLE BOY'S ANSWER.—A little boy, when asking his mother how many gods there were, was instantly answered by his younger brother, "Why one, to-be sure."

"But how do you know that?"

"Because," he replied, "God fills every place, so there is no room for any other."

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 21, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and when the said State, by a vote of a majority of the members elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4t . section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United states against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God." which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district named by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God."

which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as hereinbefore specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The spring session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First-class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
